- Indians publish in _____*

From a country of 1.3 billion people; Not a single research journal at the international level! (except Current Science).

Those who talks loudly about the quality of Indian research journals; ask yourself – how many you have published in Indian journals (to increase their quality)?

Publish your research papers in 'Carbon – Science and Technology' journal (<http://www.applied-science-innovations.com/cst-web-site/cst-1.html>)

*All other journals except Indian ones (Don't laugh; Not a joke)
